

DBSE - WEEK 9 PRACTICAL

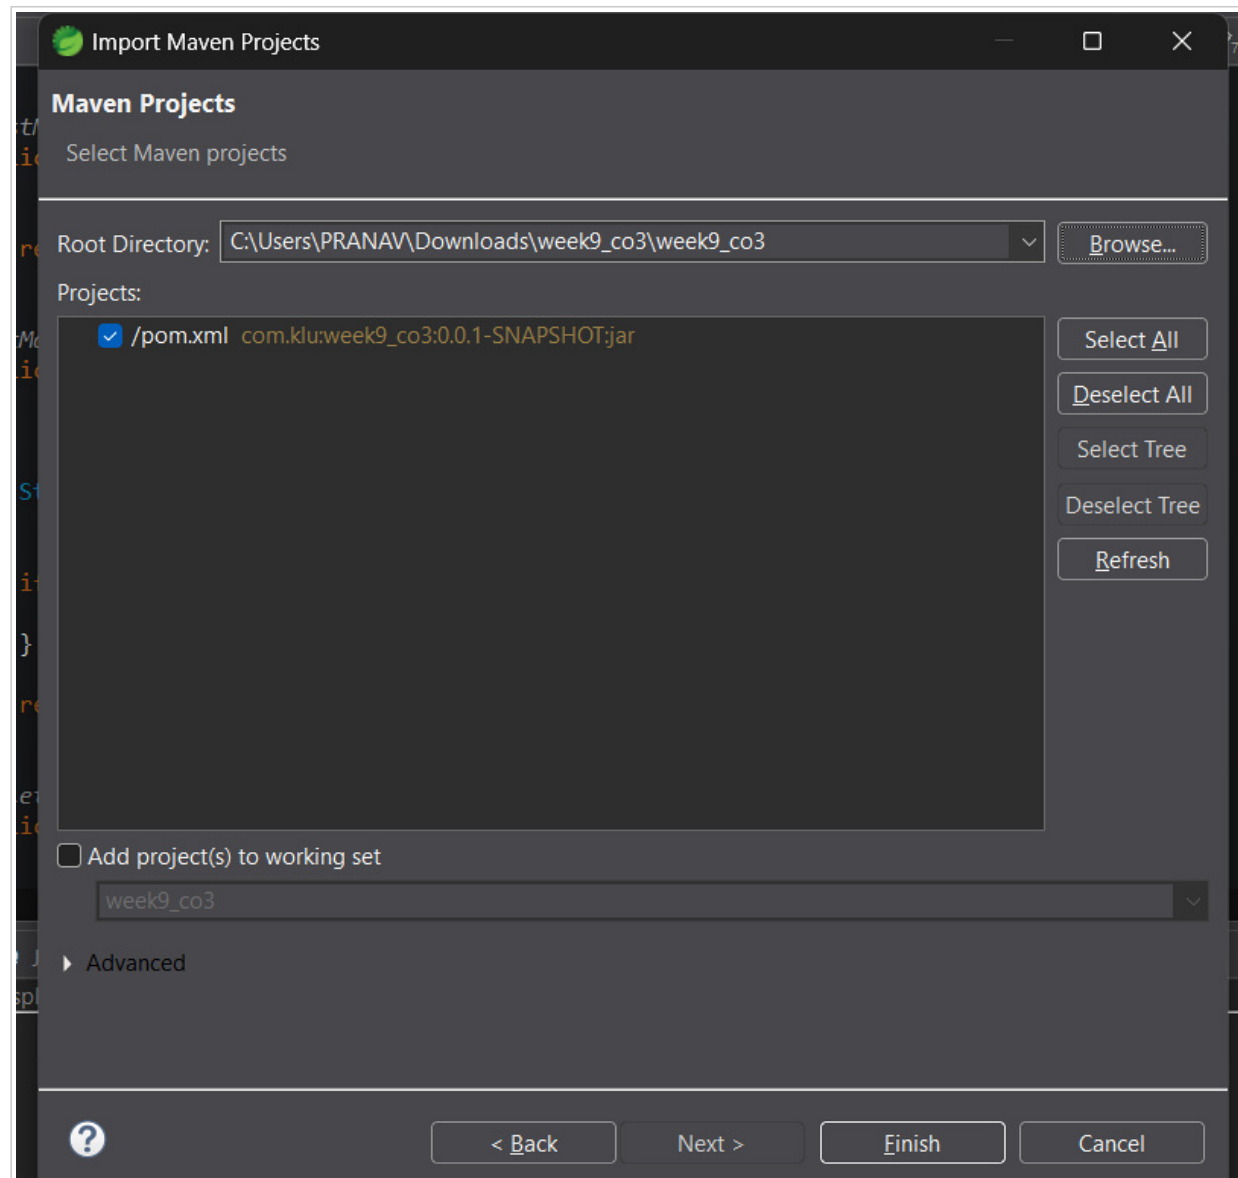

Spring Boot Product CRUD REST API

Spring Tools for Eclipse + MySQL + Postman

Roll No: 2520030477

Execution screenshots arranged in task order

1. Import Week-9 Maven Project in Spring Tools

The Week-9 Maven project is detected through its pom.xml and is ready to import.

2. Verify MySQL Database and Products Table

Command Prompt - mysql -u  X + v
C:\Program Files\MySQL\MySQL Server 8.0\bin>mysql -u root -p
Enter password: ****
Welcome to the MySQL monitor.  Commands end with ; or \g.
Your MySQL connection id is 9
Server version: 8.0.46 MySQL Community Server - GPL

Type 'help;' or '\h' for help. Type '\c' to clear the current input statement.

mysql> CREATE DATABASE kluh;
ERROR 1007 (HY000): Can't create database 'kluh'; database exists
mysql> USE kluh;
Database changed
mysql> ^C
mysql> USE kluh;
Database changed
mysql> SHOW TABLES;
+-----+
| Tables_in_kluh |
+-----+
| products       |
+-----+
1 row in set (0.01 sec)
```

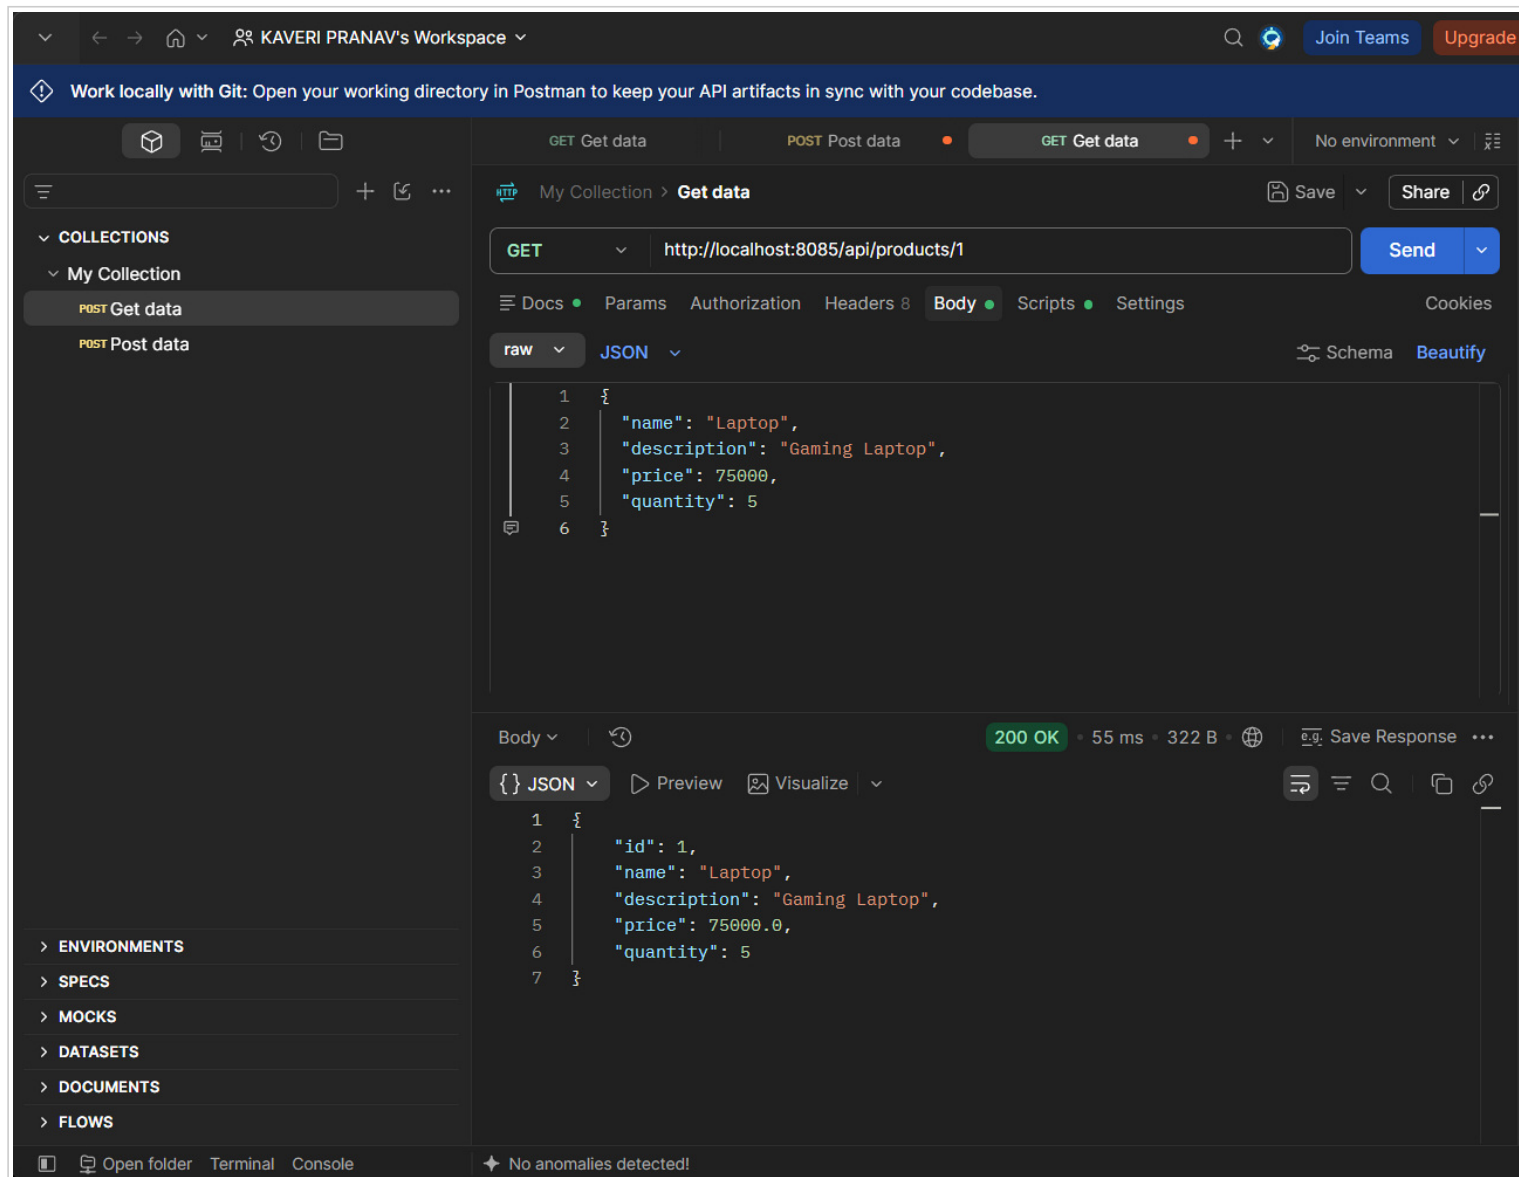

The kluh database already exists and contains the products table.

3. CREATE - POST Product

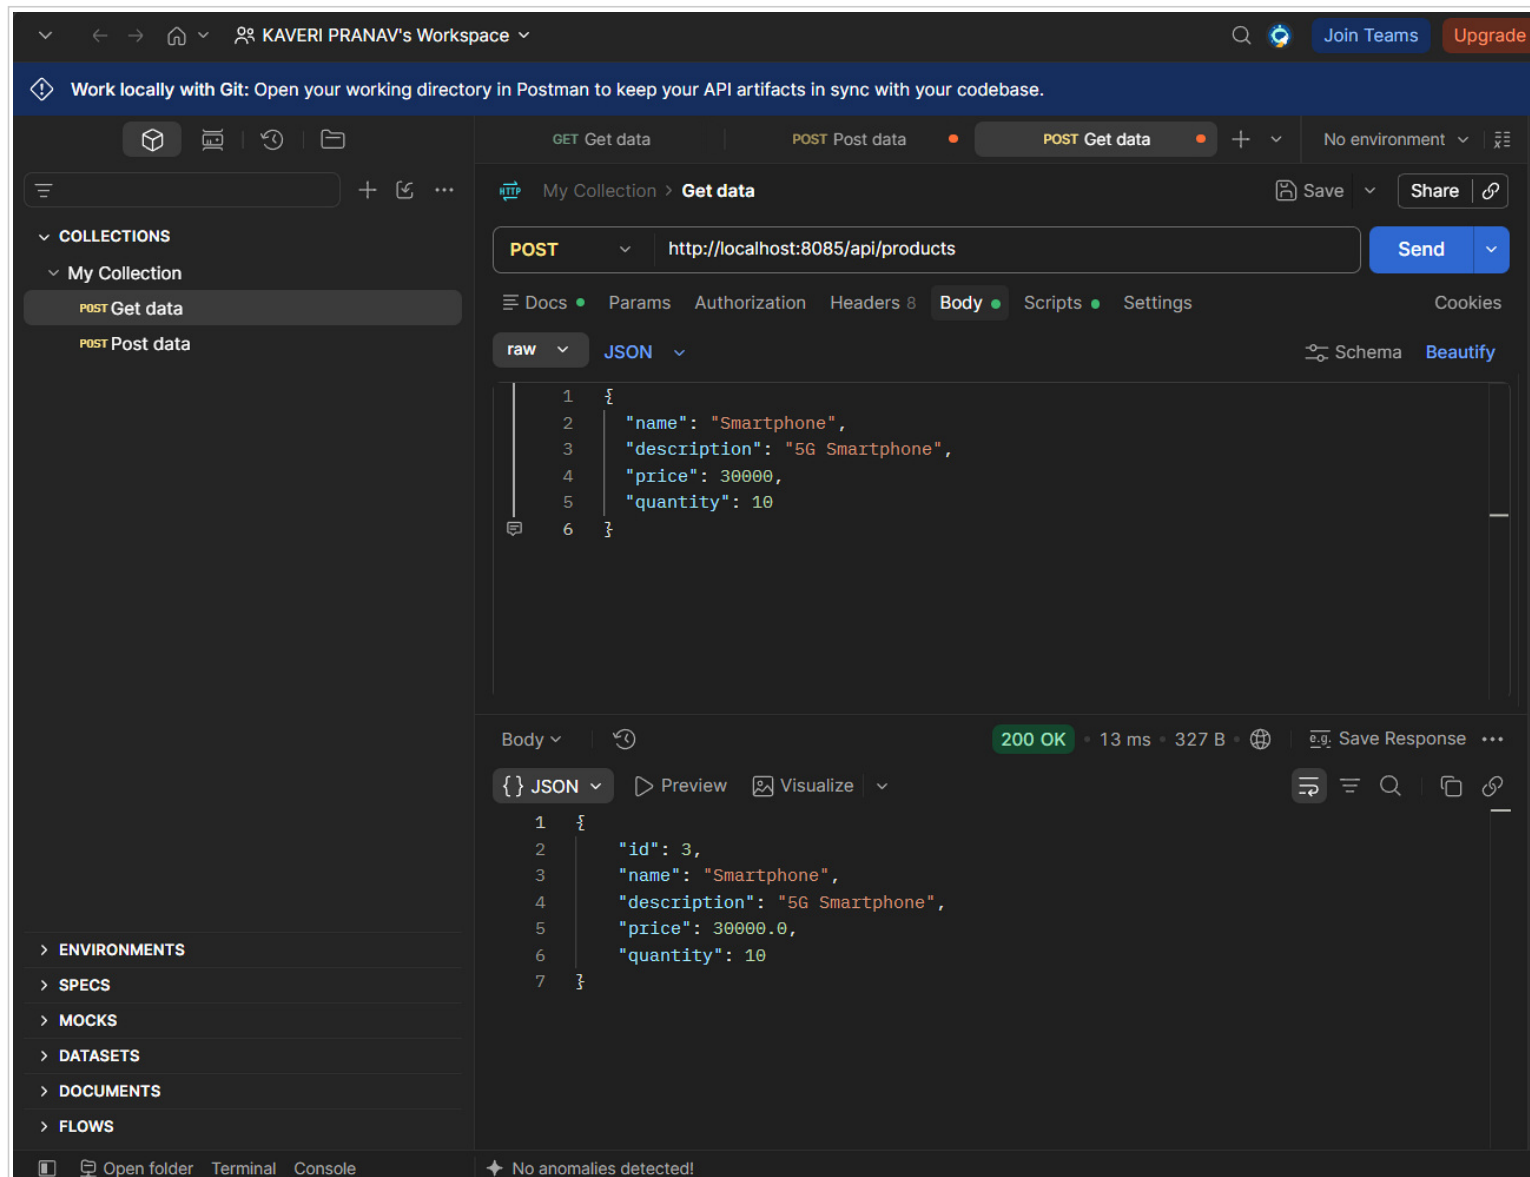

POST `/api/products` creates the Laptop product successfully and returns HTTP 200 OK.

4. READ - GET Product by ID

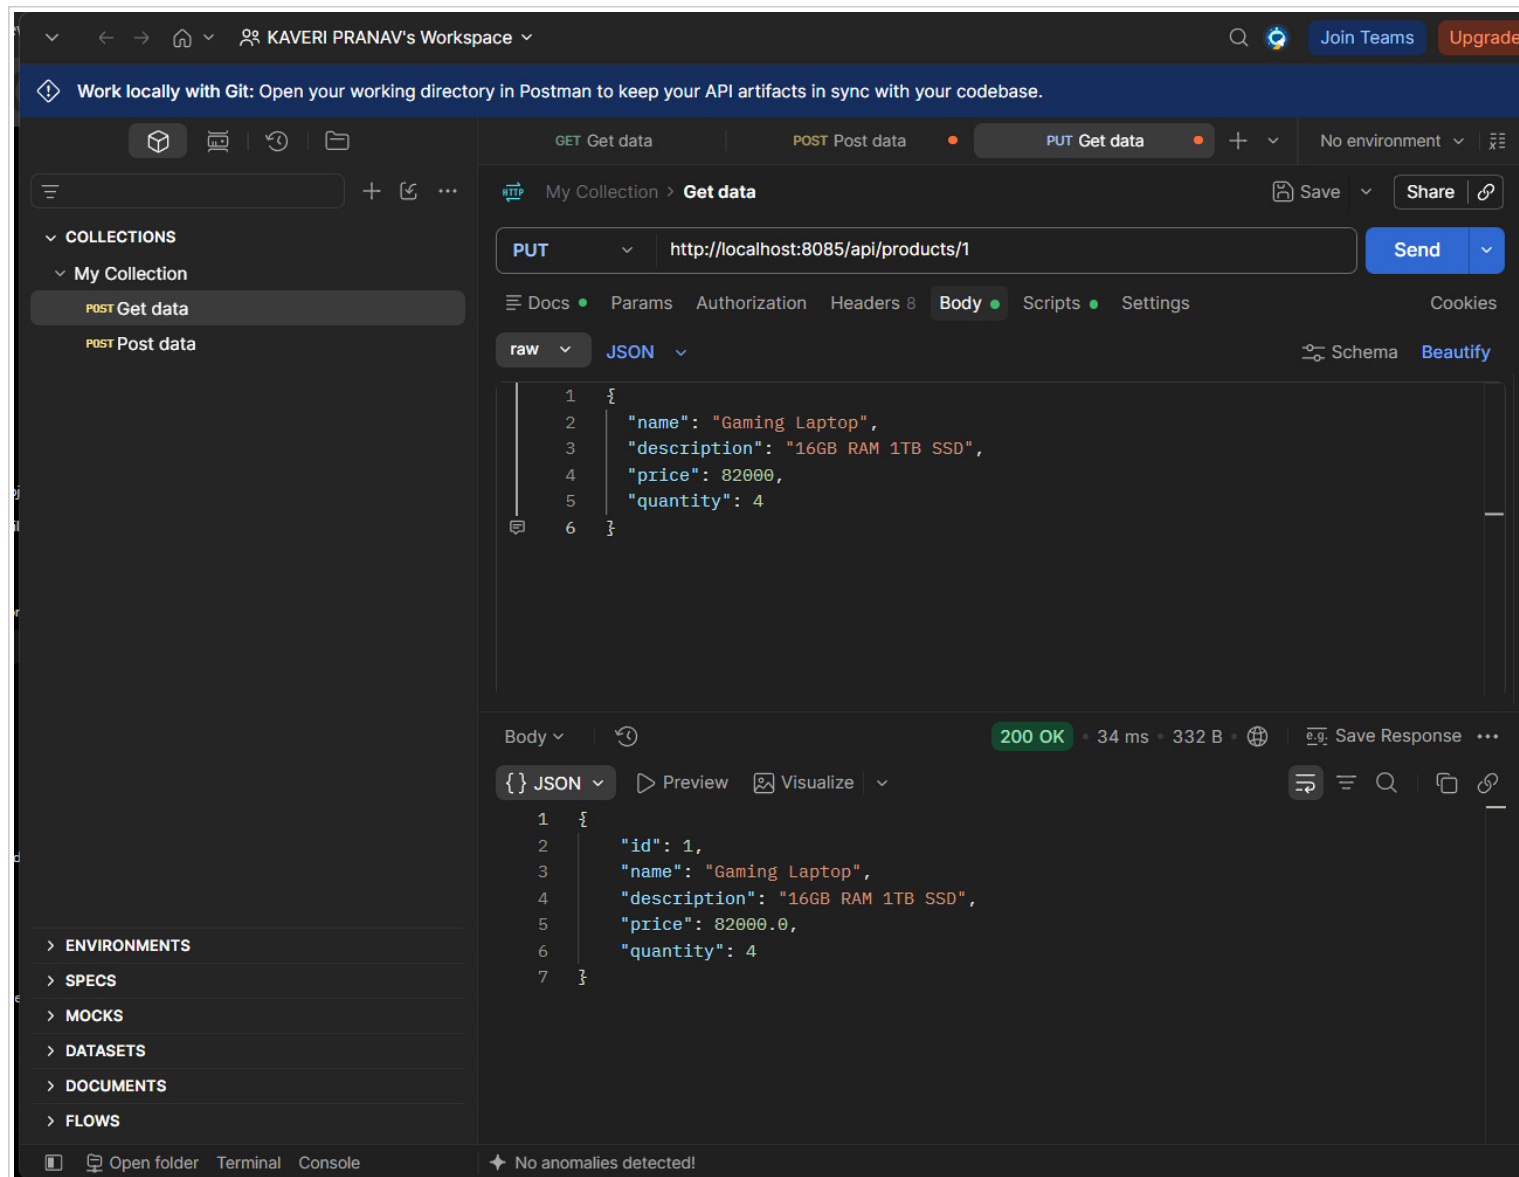

GET `/api/products/1` retrieves the product with id 1 successfully.

5. CREATE - POST Second Product

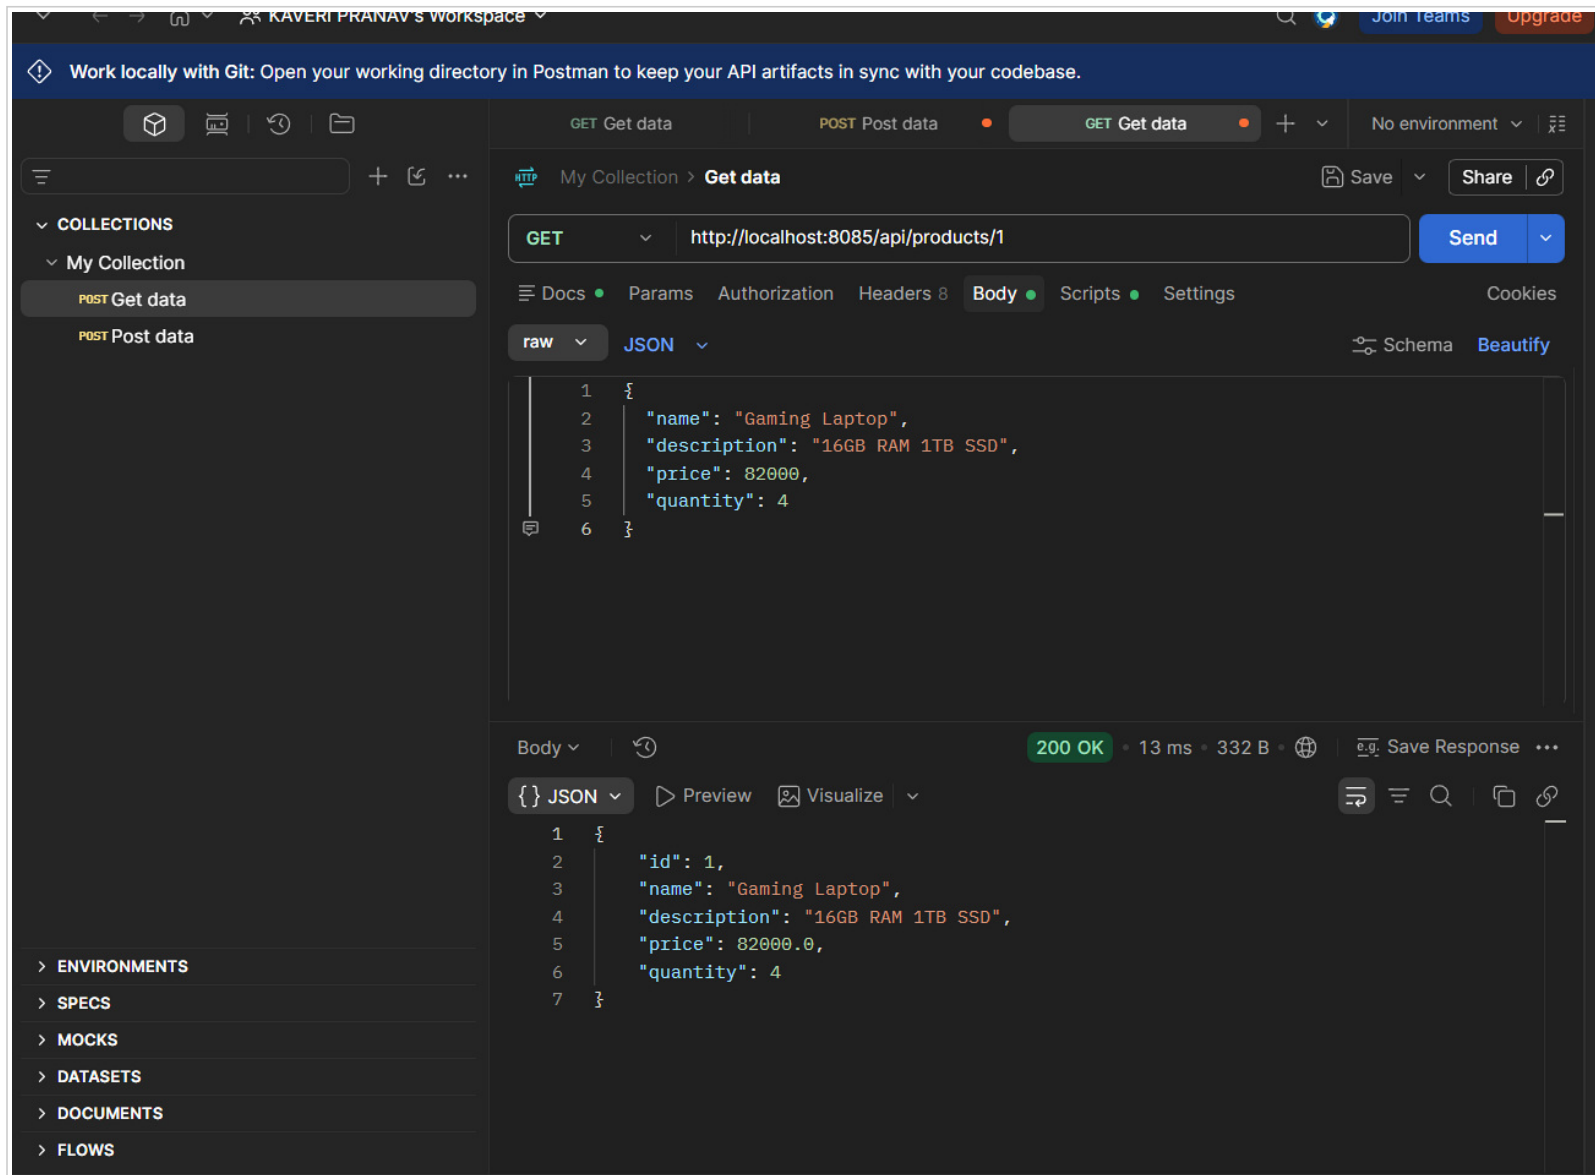

A second product, Smartphone, is created successfully using POST.

6. UPDATE - PUT Product

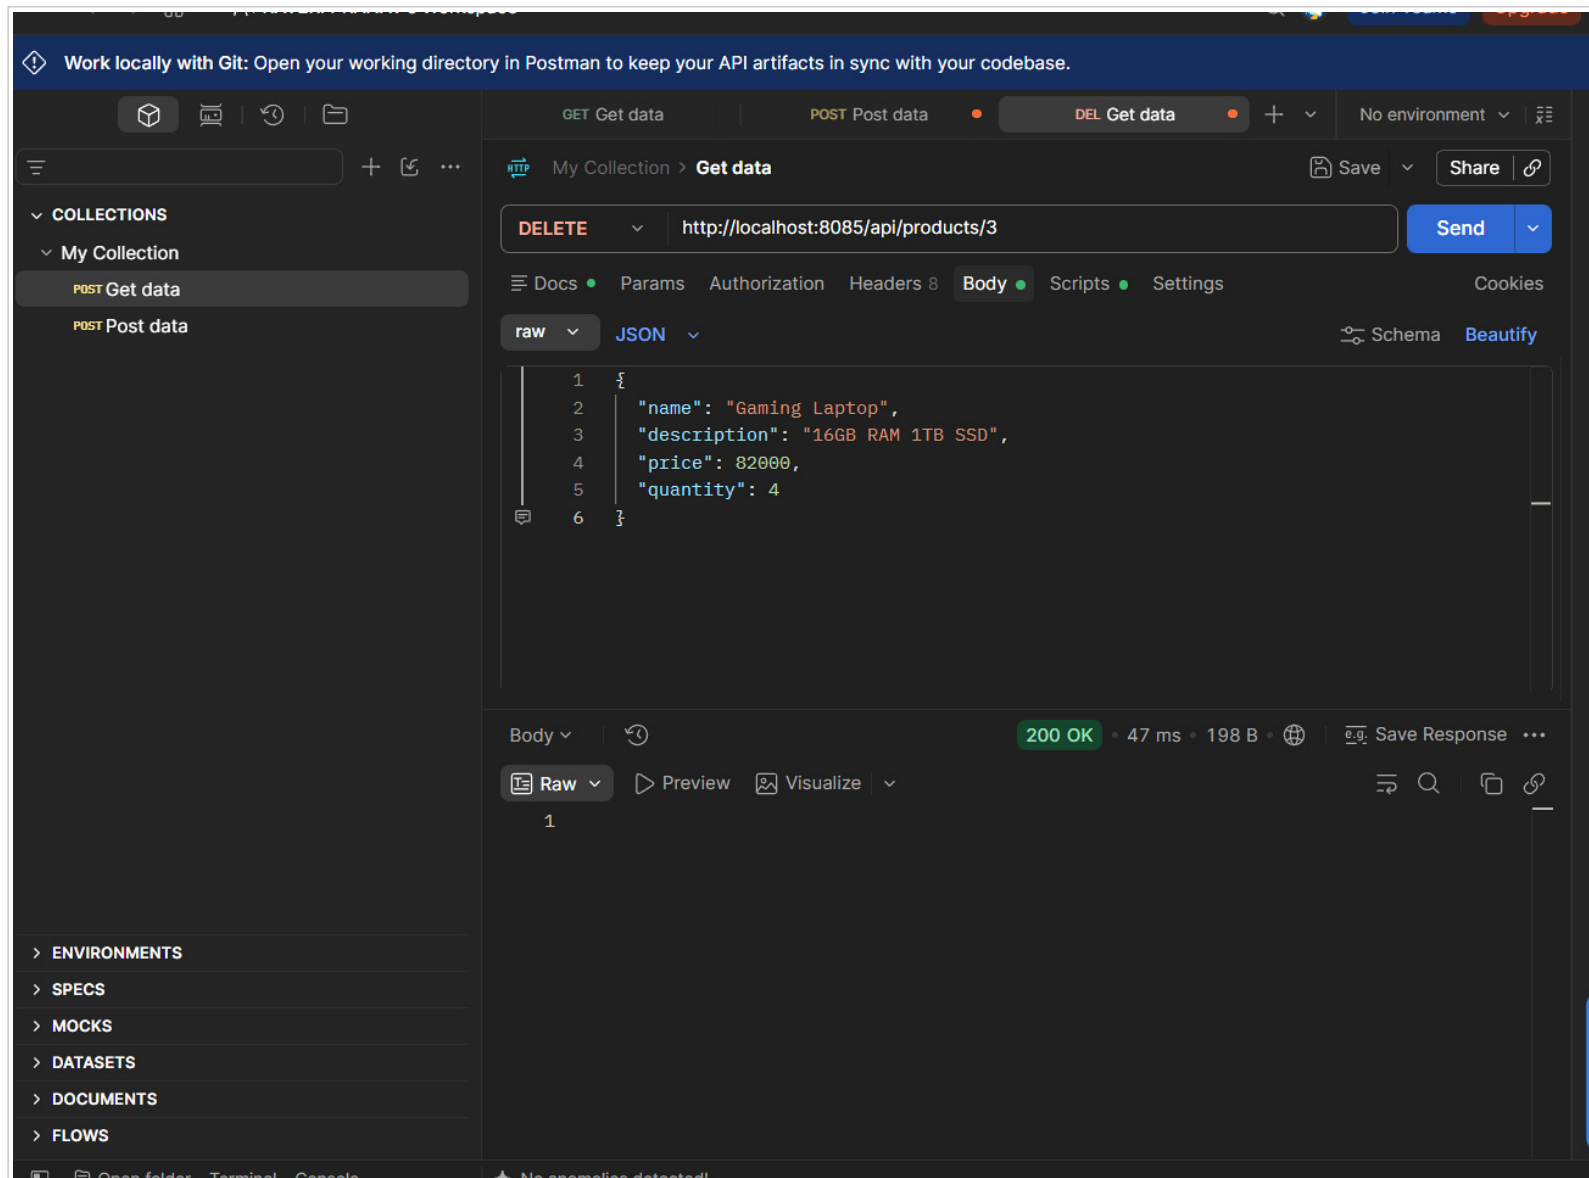

PUT `/api/products/1` updates the Laptop details, price and quantity.

7. READ - Verify Updated Product

GET `/api/products/1` confirms that the updated values were persisted.

8. DELETE - Remove Second Product

DELETE /api/products/3 returns HTTP 200 OK, confirming successful deletion.

9. Final MySQL Verification

```
mysql> USE kluh;
Database changed
mysql> SELECT * FROM products;
+----+-----+-----+-----+-----+
| id | description      | name          | price | quantity |
+----+-----+-----+-----+-----+
|  1 | 16GB RAM 1TB SSD | Gaming Laptop | 82000 |         4 |
+----+-----+-----+-----+-----+
1 row in set (0.00 sec)
```

SELECT * FROM products shows the final updated Gaming Laptop record remaining in the database.
